

AMS 204-001: Intro to Western Studies

Dr. Jack Carey

MWF, 11:00-11:50

ten Hoor 107

This discussion-based course introduces students to major texts and interdisciplinary methodologies in the field of Western Studies. This course will tell what one scholar has called “a longer, grimmer, but more interesting story” of the American West. We will examine western experiences in a range of eras over several centuries, and we will read and listen to a diverse range of voices and stories. This course will also help students place the West within the larger United States and the larger world.
